Life glides away Lorenzo like a brook
For ever changing unperceived the change
In the same brook none ever bathed him twice
To the same life none ever twice awake
We call the brook the same the same we think
Our life though still more rapid in its flow

SCULPTURE.

Wise Phidias, thus his skill to show
Though many a god, advanced to Jove
And taught the polished rock to shine
With airs and lineaments divine
Till Greece amazed and half afraid
Th' assembled Deities survey'd,
This wonder of the sculpture hand,
Produced, his art was at a stand
For who would hope new fame to raise
Or risk his well establish'd praise
That his high genius to approve
Had carried the Gods and came to Jove

Lines written by George Tucker, of Virginia.

Days of my youth! ye have glided away;
 Hairs of my youth! ye are are frosted, and gray 29/ 86
 Eyes of my youth! your keen sight is no more; 21 1/2
 Cheeks of my youth! ye are furrow'd all o'er;
 Strength of my youth! all your vigour is gone; 2/2 3 88
 Thoughts of my youth! your gay visions are flown! 1194

Days of my youth! I wish not your recal;
 Hairs of my youth! I'm content you should fall;
 Eyes of my youth! ye much evil have seen;
 Cheeks of my youth! bath'd in tears have ye been;
 Thoughts of my youth! ye have led me astray;
 Strength of my youth! why lament your decay!

H Coffins Book 1821
 Days of my age! ye will shortly be past;
 Pains of my age! yet awhile ye can last;
 Joys of my age! in true wisdom delight;
 Eyes of my age! be religion your light;
 Thoughts of my age! dread ye not the cold sod!
 Hopes of my age! be ye fix'd on your GOD.
